

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 14-cr-20529

v.

HON. LINDA V. PARKER
United States District Judge

HERBERT T. FELTON, JR.

Defendant.

---

GOVERNMENT'S RESPONSE & BRIEF TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR PSYCHOLOGICAL EXAMINATION TO DETERMINE COMPETENCY

On October 26, 2015, defendant filed a motion claiming that there is reasonable cause to believe that defendant may be mentally incompetent to stand trial. Defendant is seeking an order requiring that defendant be examined by the Bureau of Prisons to determine if he presently suffers from any mental condition that would render him mentally incompetent.

Based on the information provided in defendant's motion, the United States, by its undersigned attorneys has no objection to this Court granting defendant's motion. The parties agree that a proposed stipulated order for a competency determination shall be submitted to the court.

Respectfully submitted,

BARBARA L MCQUADE
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
